Mrs. Allan D. Brown returned today to her home in Northfield, after a visit of several days spent at the home of H. K. Bush.

At the regular meeting of the Red Men last evening five were raised to the chief's degree, and two applications were received.

A nurse from Burlington came last night to care for Kenneth McDonald of Summer street, who is dangerously ill with pneumonia.

News has been received from Samuel Novelli, who is in Italy, that he is much improved in health and intends to return to Barre next month.

Daniel Nicholson went to Littleton, N. H., this afternoon to attend the wedding of his sister, Miss Jennie Nicholson, formerly of this city.

John Ross, messenger boy at the Western Union office, is confined to the house with sickness. Willie Frenier is taking his place as messenger.

Carl Hendricks left for Kentucky this evening. He will visit points in Montreal, Buffalo, N. Y., Cleveland and Cincinnati, O. He expects to be back in two months.

Overseer Smith of Barre says that he is going to send the German family to California, says the Montpelier Argus, notwithstanding there has been considerable opposition.

Mrs. Thomas Smollett and children leave tomorrow night for Aberdeen, Scotland, to join her husband who went there several weeks ago. They do not expect to return to this country.

The state auditor's office in Montpelier will be kept open all the year, as Mr. Graham has engaged D. F. Hanley of Hyde Park as bookkeeper. Mr. Hanley was formerly bookkeeper for ex-Gov. C. S. Page.

The annual meeting of the board of directors of the Vermont state anti-saloon league will be held in Trinity church in Montpelier January 31 at 1:30 p. m., for the election of officers and any other business to come before the meeting.

There will be a business meeting of the members of the Vincitia club, at the club rooms, on Thursday evening, January 26th, at eight o'clock. As there is important business to be done, it is requested that as many as possible be present.

The committee that managed the no license campaign in Montpelier last year held a meeting yesterday afternoon to discuss plans of reorganization. Those present at the meeting included Eves, W. B., Dukeshire, L. F., Reed, J., Edward Wright, Guy C. Lamson and Capt. F. B. Thomas.

If you see Aldermen Robins and Adie and Fire Chief Campbell speeding behind a pair of horses this afternoon you may know that they aren't out to break any laws or records, but are trying out three pairs of horses that have been proposed for the second fire department team. They are to report to the city council.

W. T. Keyes, of the state hatchery at Roxbury, was in Montpelier yesterday on his way to Averill pond with a shipment of 1,600 lake trout. A similar shipment was made last Thursday and further shipments are to be made until 18,000 have been placed in the pond. Mr. Keyes states that affairs are in fine shape at the hatchery, the fish being in excellent condition.

The Lenox Hotel in Montpelier has been closed, but G. S. Doty who has been managing it, thinks that he can meet the bills by sale of furniture, etc. Mrs. Doty went to New York recently and it was afterwards announced that she would not return. Mr. Doty ascribes her decision not to return to Vermont to overwork and discouragement about their affairs.

Mrs. C. C. Page of 37 Jefferson street gave a surprise party to Miss Alta Ramsay last evening, at which about 25 people were present. The evening was passed enjoyably with music and games, and refreshments were served. Miss Ramsay left this noon for Boston, where she will enter the office of the Remington Typewriter company, and not study stenography as stated in yesterday's paper.

Twenty abutters on the little but troublesome Potash Brook, which runs through the eastern part of the city, met the street committee of the city council yesterday afternoon to discuss means for preventing the spring floods. The city proposed that the abutters clean out the brook and the city keep the culverts clear, those on East and Park streets being the worst ones to keep free of ice. The abutters did not appear disposed to clean out the brook. The city will probably keep the culverts clear of ice for a distance of four feet each side of the culverts.

The Sunday school classes of Miss Lena Moorcraft and Mrs. F. C. Eaton were entertained last evening at the home of the latter, and a most enjoyable evening was spent. Games occupied a part of the entertainment and then the photos and carols which Miss Moorcraft brought home from her recent visit to California were looked over. Refreshments were served. Those who attended were Florence Danforth, Genevieve Blanchard, Luna Morgan, Grace Dillon, Mary Wells, Bessie Glidden, Gladys Bradford, Gertrude Slayton, Emily Benedict, Beulah Dodge, Florence Parker, and Mammie Drew of the Sunday school classes. Christina Reid was also a guest.
